Hi Cassandra and Sue,

I just sent you an invite for February 5 at 11:00 AM. I have meetings at 9 and 10. Cassandra, is it easiest for us to come to you? I am happy to meet here or at DWR or at the Corps. Do either of you have a preference? I can leave my 10 AM meeting at 9:45 to allow walk time -- it is our weekly team meeting and I will have had plenty of it in 45 minutes :-).

Thanks for your quick response.

Erin

Hi Erin and Cassandra:

February 5th and 7th work for me (all day). February 4th afternoon is good, too. I am not available on the 8th.

Thank you,

Sue

Hi Susan and Cassandra,

I'm writing to see if we can reschedule our meeting to update me on BDCP Corps/404 items. I'm v. sorry about the cancellation last time!

This week is v. full but my calendar is mostly open on Feb 4 and 8, some spots on 5 and 7. Any chance something in there works? I'm thinking we need ~ 60 min?

For agenda items, Susan said there is quite a bit for a general update on they work you've been doing and I was also hoping to discuss the project purposes and get an idea of how you all see them being used. Anything else?

Hope you all are well,
Erin

OMG! That's pretty scary and unsettling. No worries at all. Next week is relatively open, so just sent me an email when you get to the office next week and we can find a date/time that works.

Take care, Cassandra

Hi Cassandra and Susan,

It's been a bit of an alarming morning. The building where childcare for our son is located closed this morning because some homemade explosives went off (in a nearby building?? information was scarce at drop off) and injured the person making them. A few buildings were evacuated including the one with our childcare. I'm not sure how long it will be closed but I'm definitely not taking our little guy back there today and my husband is traveling for work. I got the sense that the "incident" was not in the building with the childcare but close in another building on UCD campus.

I'm so sorry Cassandra, I know I've asked for the meeting to be rescheduled a number of times and you've been very patient. When I spoke with Susan yesterday she said there is a lot of information for an update and it is timely to meet today. If you would entertain rescheduling once again, I would be very appreciative. I'll make sure it is a time when I have back up for kids and won't change it even if our political appointee requests a personal meeting with me! (which is v. unlikely but so is what happened this morning!! ).

Erin

Hi Susan and Cassandra,

Just confirming that we're all available tomorrow for a short informative/update meeting tomorrow. Cassandra and I had discussed getting together a while back and I finally got in touch with Susan to include her in the conversation. Happily, she's available at 11:00 tomorrow!

Looking forward to seeing you both tomorrow, Erin
